

A TRAVERSATA MAIÓ

THE GRANDE TRAVERSÉE OF CORSICA BY BIKE

GT
20

GT 20 is a new cycling route (« GT » stands for Grande Traversée) that crosses the island of Corsica from north to south, along a 12-stage and 600km scenic itinerary, for a total height difference of 9 500m ; Cycling enthusiasts (on e-Bikes or muscle-powered bikes) are now proposed to discover, on secondary open-roads, the island diversity and her contrasted landscapes -from shores to the heights !- picturesque villages and original local heritage, from Bastia to Bonifacio. GT20 is the cyclable counterpart of the famous GR20 walking trail (« GR » stands for Grande Randonnée) ; outdoor discovery lovers will also appreciate both itineraries cross each other on several locations.
